Meet Mystery

"Let me formally introduce myself. My name is Mystery, and Bernard picked me to be his senior affairs' advisor and confidante. I am twelve years young and aged to purrfection..."

I have lived here at Cat Depot for a year, since my purrson fell ill and went into hospice. I miss him every day.

I don't know why I haven't been 'dopted yet, but now that I am senior affairs advisor hope springs eternal. Bernard and I have meowed about it, and we think I'm still here because of people's perceptions of older cats.

I'm not old: I'm lovable. I am sweet, I love cuddling, I would enjoy sitting on your lap, and I am very loyal. I am here every day and I hope you will visit me, and maybe even take me home. There is no "mystery" to me, I promise. What you see is what you get."

Mystery is the spokeskitty for Cat Depot's new Save Our Seniors program, which officially launched on November 15. Save Our Seniors' mission is to focus on the adoption of mature, senior, and geriatric cats, 8 years of age and older.

The program was created to educate the public and raise awareness of the value of adopting senior cats, increase the entrance of senior cats into the shelter along with their adoption rate, and to decrease a senior cat's time spent residing at the shelter.
