

October, 2015

National Feral Cat Day raises awareness about feral cats, promotes Trap-Neuter-Vaccinate-Return programs, and empowers the millions of compassionate Americans who care for these felines.

Cat Depot has spayed/neutered 1,135 cats and kittens (including 500 feral cats) in the Rose Durham Cat Care Clinic since November 2014. In recognition of National Feral Cat Day, Cat Depot will spay/neuter 16 community cats on October 16 and hold a private ribbon cutting for the Caroline Resnick Surgery Suite in the Rose Durham Cat Care Clinic.

Tiger

Handsome big boy

Tiger is a nine-year-old sweet gentleman who lost his guardian. Sadly, no one in the family could keep him or his two sisters. He is trying to mend his broken heart, but it has been difficult. Tiger would do best in a quiet home where he gets lots of attention. He loves to have his gorgeous, long fur brushed and is very motivated by cat treats. This beautiful boy hopes that his new forever family will find him soon, so he can get started on the next chapter of his life.

Soft Kitty, Warm Kitty, Little Ball of Fur

Thank you for helping me!

They come to us in towels, boxes, and carried in people's palms: tiny kittens found everywhere from dumpsters to garden sheds. Right now, we have over 100 kittens in foster care, and they keep arriving. We need your help to be able to care for them!

The early days are critical. Young kittens aren't able to maintain their body temperature, and when they don't have their mother to keep them warm, they need the support of a warm, snuggle-safe heating pad that helps control their body temperature for 24 hours. Each pad can be heated over and over again. Our goal is to purchase 20.

In addition, we need 100 bottle nursing kits. Cat Depot has rescued over 700 kittens so far this year, and that's a lot of nursing kittens. Bottles and nipples need to be replaced frequently. Our goal is to save 800 kittens in 2015. To learn more, please click on the link below.

YoYo

Still waiting after all these years

Stop in to visit YoYo. She just may melt your heart.

Sonny

Waiting to greet you

Sonny is a ray of sunshine on a dreary day. He is friendly and affectionate and always ready to greet you at the door.

Brought to Cat Depot after his owner passed away, Sonny is a Lifetime Care cat. He will be matched with the perfect family and followed by Cat Depot for the rest of his life. Sonny always has a sunny disposition, but is best in a home without other cats.
